

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The National Day of Truth and Reconciliation, on Saturday, September 30th, is dedicated to honouring Canada's residential school survivors, their families and communities. Together, Lord Aylmer's staff and students will commemorate the history and ongoing legacy throughout the week of September 25th - 29th.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
❖ Truth and Reconciliation mentioned on announcements. ❖ Possible Classroom focus: Elder Grandfather Teachings 1 (Wisdom) & 2 (Love)	❖ Land Acknowledgement ❖ Possible Classroom focus: Elder Grandfather Teachings 3 (Respect) & 4 (Courage)	❖ Land Acknowledgement ❖ Possible Classroom focus: Elder Grandfather Teachings 5 (Honesty) & 6 (Humility)	❖ Land Acknowledgement ❖ Possible Classroom focus: Elder Grandfather Teachings 7 (Truth)	❖ Wear Orange: To honour and bring awareness to the Indigenous children who were taken from their families and placed in residential schools. ❖ Assembly (K-6) at 12:30 in the senior campus gym. ❖ Group Photo outside following the assembly. ❖ All classes will be provided with orange ribbons for their students to tie on the fence at their campus
Additional Activities: ❖ Door Decoration – classes can decorate their doors with Orange Shirts or other material that is related to Truth and Reconciliation. ❖ Teachers resource package filled with activities for your classrooms. ❖ Various books are available at each campus that can be read in class. ❖ Students at both campuses will be invited to add orange handprints on to an “Every Child Matters” poster.				