L.A.'s International Day of Pink April 9th - April 12th, 2024

As part of our ongoing commitment to fostering a safe and inclusive environment for all our students, the Lord Aylmer staff and students will be celebrating International Day of Pink (April 10th) with a week packed full of events!

It is a day dedicated to raising awareness about the impact of bullying, discrimination, homophobia, and transphobia. It serves as a reminder of the importance of promoting diversity, acceptance, and inclusion within our school community and beyond.

This year, we are promoting mental health awareness and well-being among our students all week long. See below for our activities:
